

ITSEC24 (may apply to 1042 and 1052 journey-level positions or higher):

Description: Verifiable and recent journey-level experience in establishing the technical and physical controls necessary to protect enterprise data and information assets. Expertise encompasses the ability performing information technology security risk assessments, ability to perform written, detailed, comprehensive and complex analysis across all network, system and application security levels on an enterprise-wide level. Expertise must include demonstrable coursework completion in information security or industry accepted professional certification in the field of security.

ITSEC36 (may apply to 1043 and 1053 senior-level positions or higher):

Description: Verifiable and recent senior-level experience in establishing the technical and physical controls necessary to protect enterprise data and information assets. Expertise encompasses the ability performing information technology security risk assessments, ability to perform written, detailed, comprehensive and complex analysis across all network, system and application security levels on an enterprise-wide level. Expertise must include industry accepted professional certification in the field of security. Expertise preferably includes CISSP and CISA security certifications. [CISSP = Certified Information Security Systems Profession, CISA = Certified Information Systems Auditor].

ITSEC48 (may apply to 1044 and 1054 principal-level positions or higher):

Description: Verifiable and recent principal-level experience in establishing the technical and physical controls necessary to protect enterprise data and information assets. Expertise encompasses the ability performing information technology security risk assessments, ability to perform written, detailed, comprehensive and complex analysis across all network, system and application security levels on an enterprise-wide level. Expertise must include industry accepted professional certification in the field of security. Expertise preferably includes CISSP and CISA security certifications. [CISSP = Certified Information Security Systems Profession, CISA = Certified Information Systems Auditor].

ITSEC60 (may apply to 1070 and 0941 project director-level positions):

Description: Verifiable and recent project director-level experience in establishing the technical and physical controls necessary to protect enterprise data and information assets. Expertise encompasses the ability performing information technology security risk assessments, ability to perform written, detailed, comprehensive and complex analysis across all network, system and application security levels on an enterprise-wide level. Experience must include proven expertise in the identification of risks, the creation of mitigation plans and the project management to completion of those plans to mitigate/eliminate the identified risks. Expertise must include industry accepted professional certification in the field of security. Expertise preferably includes CISSP and CISA security certifications. [CISSP = Certified Information Security Systems Profession, CISA = Certified Information Systems Auditor].